Our team is absolutely animal-loving, so that your shaggy animal, feel comfortable by us, we have compiled some information and rules for you.

Accommodation in the room

Please use your own bedding for your dog and your own towels for drying. Our hygiene standards do not allow dogs in the bed or on the armchairs. Our towels are also taboo for animals. Please keep in mind that the next guest may be allergic, so your room needs to be cleaned even more thoroughly than usual. For this effort we charge a one-time cleaning fee of € 20,00 /per dog. If your dog is alone in the room, please place the "Do not disturb" sign on your room door.

Going for a walk

We have plenty of space around the house, but not every corner is suitable as a dog toilet. Please walk with your pet a few steps towards the beer garden, cross the parking lot you will reach a field paths that turns left. This is where your dog can let off steam. Please do not forget to take your leftovers back with you, your food grows on the fields. If you have forgotten your dog bags, please ask our friendly personal.

Here please DO NOT go for a walk

Dogs are not allowed on the hotel meadow, on the flower meadow, in the herb garden, and on the playground (private), well-behaved dogs are welcome in the beer garden.

Dogs in the guest rooms

Our team and many of our guests welcome it if you come to dinner without your dog. If it isn't possible otherwise, please understand that only well-behaved, clean and well-kept dogs are welcome in the guest rooms. Dogs are not allowed at breakfast.

Hunger and thirst
